

Call for Participation

4th International Conference on Modern Circuits and Systems Technologies

May 14-15, 2015

Aristotle University Dissemination Center (ΚΕΔΕΑ)

Organized by the FP7 Marie Curie IAPP Project FTK, the Greek National projects
NANOTRIM and NANOMOS and the Micro & Nano Scientific Society

Organizing committee:

Dr. Spyridon Nikolaidis

Associate Professor

Department of Physics, AUTH
snikolaid@physics.auth.gr

Dr. Charalabos Dimitriadis

Professor

Department of Physics, AUTH
cdimitri@physics.auth.gr

Dr. Kostas Kordas

Assistant Professor

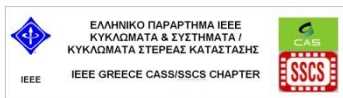

Department of Physics, AUTH

Sponsored by:

The FP7 Marie Curie Project FTK-IAPP the Greek National Projects NANOTRIM (ΣΥΝΕΡΓΑΣΙΑ II) and NANOMOS (ΑΡΙΣΤΕΙΑ II) and the Micro & Nano Scientific Society organize the 4th International Conference on Modern Circuits and Systems Technologies in the area of ICT. The Conference focuses on emerging technologies in:

- Device and Circuit Modeling
- Digital Circuits and Systems Design
- High Performance Embedded Systems
- Systems and Applications

Keynote speakers:

Dr. Gerard Ghibaudo

Director of Research, CNRS, Grenoble, France

on “Electrical characterization of advanced CMOS devices”

Dr. Thanos Demiris

R&D Group Leader, micro²gen Ltd, Athens, Greece

on “Efficient prototyping and manufacturing of medical instrumentation through customizable electronic components”

Professors, researchers and companies from Europe and Greece will participate presenting their research activities.

The workshop will be held on Thursday the 14th and Friday the 15th of May at the Aristotle University Dissemination Center (ΚΕΔΕΑ), lecture Hall II. Opening at 9.00 a.m.

Student paper submissions are encouraged. Registration to the conference is free of charge for all participants. Registered participants will receive a certificate of attendance. For further information look at <http://mocast.physics.auth.gr>
